CRIMINAL CONSPIRACY

Examination of M. R. Harlan is Taking Place at Bisbee.

The examination of F. W. Howard, secretary and treasurer, and M. R. Harlan, of this city, general manager of the Modern Mining company, on a charge of criminal conspiracy is taking place at Bisbee.

The case is the outcome of a charge brought against N. A. Centers, president of the company, for alleged manout which charge was dismissed by the further states:

"That Centers spent in addition to gists. this amount of money due him, the receipts of 4,000 shares of his stock which he used for the development of the property and which the company still owes him for, that Messrs. Har lan and Howard had admitted, in the prosecution against Mr. Centers, that they did not know what amount of money Centers had received; what amount of money he had expended or what amount of money was owing tioned as to the alleged amount of embezzlement. Mr. Harlan swore he druggists. knew nothing of the facts except as stated to him by Howard and that Mr.

Howard swore that he did not know how much Centers was entitled to o what he had received or what he had expended. Further that both Harlan and Howard had access to the books of the company and were notified that their inspection: that Howard with knowledge knew that Centers had turned over to Briggs, one of the directors, the sum of $1,100, and after admitting upon oath, that he had no reason to disbelieve this and after asking Briggs to account for that sum had included it in the sum alleged to have been embezzled by Centers: that neither Harian nor Howard claimed to know, or pretended to know of any fact

The trial before Judge Williams is on a charge of criminal conspiracy against Messrs, Harland and Howard for causing the arrest of Centers for mbezzlement. The Modern Mining company over which litigation has arisen was discovered five years ago by Mr. Briggs, one of the heavy stockholders, and another. The property is located in the other. The property is located in the Warren mining district about seven the last general election for Arthur J. miles west of Bisbee and consists of Edwards for district attorney, twenty-nine claims. This property opens up a new mining field, as there were no other mines in this immediate vicinity which thus far have been operated. This property has been passed upon by mining men, :who pronounc it as being a bonanza. The company was incorporated or the 5th day of April, 1991, with 1,000, 600 shares at $1 per share, with its first officers, consisting of N. A. Centers oresident; F. W. Howard, secretar; and treasurer, and M. R. Harlan as general manager. Thirty-two thousand iollars' worth of stock has been sold There has been about 200 feet of development work and over $2,500 word of machinery has been installed upor

the property." In addition to being the general man ager of the mining company, Mr. Har lan is the territorial organizer of the United Moderns, and has a good many riends in Phoenix who will watch the outcome of the trial for alleged crim nal conspiracy with a good deal of in erest. Mr. Harlan has his office o Adams street in this city, but has bee out of town for some time.
